

Scientific Committee

Abílio Afonso Baeta Neves

PhD in Political Science from Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität, Munster, Germany, 1981. President and scientific director of the State of Rio Grande do Sul Research Foundation (Fapergs) from 1987 to 1990. President of the Brazil Germany Cultural Institute (ICBA). Pro-Rector of Research and Postgraduate Studies at UFRGS from 1988 to 1992. President of the National Forum of Pro-Rectors for Research and Postgraduate Studies, 1991. Secretary of Higher Education of the Ministry of Education from 1996 to 2000. President of the Coordination for the Improvement of Higher Education Personnel Foundation (Capes) from 1995 to 2002. Coordinator of the Brazil-Germany Dialogue (Dialogue between Civil Societies).

Adalbert Luis Val

Distinguished as a Commander of the National Order of Scientific Merit in 2004. Elected a full member of the Brazilian Academy of Sciences in 2005. Appointed director of the National Institute for Amazonian Research in May 2006. Elected counsellor of the Brazilian Society for the Advancement of Science and vice-president of the Brazilian Academy of Sciences for the Northern Region in 2007. Awarded the Grand Order of Legislative Merit of the state of Amazonas. Has over 100 works published in major international journals. Has been advisor to over one hundred students from scientific initiation to post-doctoral research.

Amado Luiz Cervo

PhD in History from the University of Strasbourg, 1970. Official of the Order of Rio Branco, 1992. Head of the History Department of the University of Brasília (UnB) from 1995 to 1997. Currently a full professor emeritus at UnB and professor at the Rio Branco Institute of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MRE). Experience in the area of History, with emphasis in the History of International Relations. Major research subjects: Contemporary International Relations and Brazilian Foreign Policy.

Antônio Carlos Moraes Lessa

Associate Professor II and coordinator of Postgraduate Programme at the Institute of International Relations of the University of Brasília (UnB). PhD in History (area of concentration: History of International Relations) from the University of Brasília, 2000. Post-doctoral Studies at Université de Strasbourg, France, from 2008 to 2009. Editor of the Brazilian Journal of International Politics (RBPI) and Meridiano 47 – Analysis Report of the State of Affairs in International Relations.

Benamy Turkienicz

PhD in Arkitektur S. from the Chalmers University of Technology, 1982. Full Professor of the School of Architecture, of the Research and Postgraduate Programme in Architecture and of the Postgraduate Programme in Design of the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul. Visiting professor of the City Planning Master's Programme of the Erasmus Mundus Master Programme (European Community). Coordinator of the UFRGS Urban Technology Nucleus, which congregates UFRGS and UFSC research laboratories of different areas of knowledge (Architecture, Computing Sciences, Environmental Comfort, Design, Ecology, Hydraulic Engineering, Geotechnics, Traffic and Transport Systems, and Urban Planning).

Scientific Committee

Boaventura de Sousa Santos

PhD in Sociology of Law from Yale University (1973). Professor at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Coimbra, Distinguished Legal Scholar of the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Global Legal Scholar of the University of Warwick. Also director of the Centre for Social Studies of the University of Coimbra. Coordinates projects in the European Research Council (ERC), in the European Union, Belgium, and the Foundation for Science and Technology (FCT) in Portugal. Former project coordinator at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Portugal and at the Ministry of Justice in Brazil.

Eduardo H. Charreau

President of the National Academy of Exact, Physical and Natural Sciences of Argentina. Full Professor of Biochemistry in the School of Science of the University of Buenos Aires. Director of the Institute of Biology and Experimental Medicine (IBYME-CONICET). Member of the Academy of Sciences for the Developing World

(TWAS), the National Academy of Medicine of Argentina and the Academy of Medical Sciences of Córdoba. Post-doctoral research at the Fogarty International Centre of the National Institutes of Health, United States. Former lecturer, assistant professor, associate professor and full professor of the Department of Biochemistry of the University of Buenos Aires between 1960 and 2006. President of the National Research Council of Argentina (CONICET) from 2002 to 2008.

Fabio Rubio Scarano

PhD in Ecology from the University of Saint Andrews, Scotland, 1992. Post-doctoral fellowships at the Botanical Gardens of Rio de Janeiro, 1992, the Technological University of Darmstadt, Germany, 2002, and the University of Minnesota, United States, 2003. Director of Scientific Research at the Botanical Gardens of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, from 2007 to 2009. Associate professor at the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil since 1993, coordinator of the Ecology area at Capes since 2005 and Conservation International's executive director in Brazil.

Hebe Vessuri

PhD in Social Anthropology from Oxford University, United Kingdom. Awarded the National Sciences Prize of Venezuela in 2006. Researcher Emeritus of the National Programme for the Promotion of Researchers. General Editor of UNESCO/ IESALC's magazine Educación Superior y Sociedad. Presides over the Governing

Scientific Committee

Council of the United Nations University (UNU), Tokyo. Integrates the Pacification and Scientific Review Committee of the World Science Council (ICSU) and Unesco's Ethics in Science Committee. Currently directs the Department of Science Studies of the Venezuelan Institute for Scientific Research (IVIC), Caracas.

Heitor Gurgulino de Souza

Bachelor and master's degree in Mathematics from the Mackenzie Presbyterian University (1950), specialised in Nuclear Physics at Kansas University (1957), specialised in Nuclear Physics - Van de Graaff Laboratory - at the University of São Paulo (1959). Former rector of the Brazilian Legislative University (Unilegis); of the United Nations University (UNU); and of the University of São Carlos (Ufscar). Former lecturer of Physics at Ufscar; head of the Teaching and Research unit of the Organisation of American States (OAS); and full professor at the Paulista State University (Unesp, Rio Claro).

Helgio Henrique Casses Trindade

PhD in Political Science from the Institut d'Etudes Politiques of Paris, Université de Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, 1971. Retired full professor of Political Science of the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul (UFRGS). Former rector of UFRGS and president of the National Evaluation Commission (Conaes); counsellor of the Higher Education Chamber of the National Education Council (CNE) and member of the Brazilian Academy of Sciences. Rector of the Federal Latin American Integration University (UNILA).

Jair de Jesus Mari

Graduated in Medicine from the ABC University Foundation in 1977. PhD in Psychiatric Epidemiology from the University of London in 1986. Defended his "livre docência" (Habilitation) thesis at Unifesp's Department of Psychiatry in 1995. Full Professor of the Department of Psychiatry of the Federal University of São Paulo. Honorary Professor of the Institute of Psychiatry, King's College, University of London. Current coordinator of the Postgraduate Programme of Unifesp's Department of Psychiatry and coordinator of the CNPq Millennium Institute Mental Health and Violence. Major research subjects: schizophrenia, psychiatric epidemiology, violence, scientometrics, assessment of mental health services, psychiatric disorders in primary care and systematic review.

Jesús Julio Castro Lamas

PhD in Technical Sciences, Cuba, 1987. Full Professor at the "José Antonio Echeverría" Higher Polytechnic Institute (ISPJAE) since 1985. Director of Postgraduate Education of Cuba's Ministry of Higher Education and of the Ibero-American University Association Central American and Caribbean Regional Office (AUIP), since January 2000. Vice-chancellor of ISPJAE from 1997 to 1999. Director of International

Scientific Committee

Relations at ISPJAE from 1993 to 1997. Director of the Geophysics and Astronomy Institute from 1987 to 1989. Head of the Department of Mathematics at ISPJAE from 1978 to 1986. Specialist for the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) in Mozambique from 1991 to 1992, and member of the European Commission's Alban Programme International Committee (High Level Scholarships for Latin America) from 2001 to 2007.

Liovando Marciano Costa

Graduated in Agronomy from the Federal University of Viçosa (UFV) in 1971. Master's Degree in Crop Science (Crop Production) from UFV in 1973. PhD in Soil Science from the University of Missouri System, 1979. Professor of Research and Postgraduate Studies at UFV from 1998 to 2000. Coordinator of Agrarian Sciences I at Capes for two mandates, from 1997 to 2001. Director of the new Rio Parnaíba UFV Campus from August 2006 to November 2008, when the Agronomy, Administration, Food Science and Information Systems courses were established. General Coordinator of the Centre for Experimentation, Research and Extension of the Triângulo Mineiro in Capinópolis, Minas Gerais, from 2005 to 2008. Presently a full professor at the Federal University of Viçosa.

Lourival Domingos Possani Postay

PhD in Biophysics at Faculté des Sciences D'Orsay, Université de Paris, France (1970). Researcher at the Rockefeller

University of New York, United States (1971-1973); fellow of the Alexander Humboldt Foundation at the Max Planck Institute of Dortmund, Germany (1980-1982); associate professor at the Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, United States (1986-1987). International researcher of the Howard Hughes Foundation Medical Institute in the United States (1991-2001). Researcher emeritus at the Institute of Biotechnology of Mexico's Universidad Nacional Autónoma (1974-2012), member of the Latin American Academy of Sciences (1999) and Doctor Honoris Causa of the University of Debrecen in Hungary (2005).

Luiz Edson Fachin

Graduated in Law from the Federal University of Paraná (UFPR, 1980). Master's degree and PhD in Law from the Catholic University of São Paulo (1986 and 1991, respectively). Post-doctoral studies in Canada. Visiting Researcher at the Max Planck Institute in Hamburg, Germany. Visiting lecturer at King's College, London. Full professor of Civil Law at the UFPR Faculty of Law; lawyer; and member of the editorial board of the following magazines: Derecho Comparado (Buenos Aires, Argentina); Institute of Constitutional Law and Citizenship (IDCC); Crítica Jurídica (UNAM, Mexico); Júris, of the Armando Alvares Penteado Foundation School of Law (SP); Trimestral de Direito Civil (RTDC, Rio de Janeiro); and Brazilian magazine of Constitutional Civil Law and Consumer Relations.

Pedro Dolabella Portella

Scientific Committee

PhD in Materials Science and Engineering from the University of Erlangen-Nuremberg, 1984. Assistant Professor at the Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro (PUC-Rio) from 1984 to 1987. Researcher at the Federal Institute for Materials Research and Testing (BAM) from 1987 to 1992. Currently head of the Department of Materials Engineering at BAM and member of the Editorial Board of Praktische Metallographie and Journal of Failure Analysis and Prevention.

Pierre Jaisson

PhD in Natural Sciences from the Pierre et Marie Curie University (Paris 6), France, 1975. Rector of the University of Paris 13 from 1982 to 1987. President of the International Union for the Study of Social Insects (Iussis) from 1990 to 1994. Founder and president of the Echoes Programme for Scientific Collaboration between France and six Spanish-speaking American countries from 1992 to 2001. Chairman of the European Commission's Alfa Programme Group of Scientific Advisors (Latin America Academic Education), from 2000 to 2005. Vice-rector of Research and Postgraduate Studies of the University of Paris 13 from 2003 to 2008. Full Professor of Ethology at the University of Paris 13. Cofecub President since 2006. Distinguished as an Officer of the National Order of the Legion of Honour in 2001.

Thomas Maack

Graduated in Medicine from the School of Medicine of the University of São Paulo (FMUSP) in 1961. PhD in Medicine (Nephrology) from the Paulista School of Medicine in 1980. Full professor of the departments of Physiology and Medicine of the Weill Medical College of Cornell University, New York, United States, and professor emeritus of FMUSP. Member of the Brazilian Academy of Sciences. Main areas of research: kidney metabolism and transport of proteins and polypeptides; and biology of natriuretic peptides and their receptors. His bibliography comprises over 100 original articles with over 7 thousand quotes in scientific literature.

Vahan Agopyan

PhD in Civil Engineering from the University of London King's College, 1982. Director of the Polytechnic School of the University of São Paulo. IPT's Chief Executive Officer. Coordinator of Science and Technology of the Development Secretariat of the state of São Paulo. Currently a full professor of Civil Construction Materials and Components of the Polytechnic School of the University of São Paulo; pro-rector of Postgraduate at USP; vice-president of CIB (International Council for Research and Innovation in Building and Construction); member of the Higher Council of the São Paulo Research Foundation (Fapesp); president of the Higher Council of the Institute of Nuclear and Energy Research (Ipen).